THE EPISCOPAL COUNCIL STRVICES IN THE OTHER CHURCHES-ADDITIONS, BAPTISMS, &C. At the Monumental church on Sunday norning the pastor, assisted by Rev. T. M. Carson, of Lynchburg, read the service. Mr. Carson presched.

At the close of the sermon and services substance, that all of the congregation no doubt had read the full reports of the Council as published. The question of a division of the diocese and the election of an assistant bishop had been discussed at great length, and the result is that for the present at least there will not be an assistant bishop, nor will there be a division of the diocese. There was a question of another character which had been agitating the diocese for some time, and which had been settled by such a vote as all must have observed. It was a fact most gratifying that notwithstanding the subjects were most interesting to all present, and while the absorbing question referred to excited a warm discussion, there was not on the part of a single elergyman or layman a bad feeling or personal allusion calculated to It was gratifying to him as a foretaste of the future harmony of the diocese, and he moves on the plane of the Spirit who can discuss these questions without personal allusion or reflection. The hopeful feeling which characterized the Council will continue to pervade the whole Church in Virginia, and the diocese will continue to keep in the unity of the Spirit and in the bonds cese than there was a week ago, and the prayer to God should be to expand and en-peculiar one, and was liable to be misunderstood. Indeed, he had heard of most unpleasant remarks which had fallen from the lips of extremists, but he thought he could easily show that consistency and loyalty to conviction characterized the vote which was thus criticized.

He then showed that no question was raised in Council as to the dangerous tendencies of the use of flowers or altarcloths, nor any question of the expediency of the Bishop's act; but the report of the committee covered one point only, and that was as to the authority of the Bishop to istant the property of the Bishop to istant the Bishop to istant the Bishop to istant the Bishop the Bisho Kanawha Company with the Richmond and sue the circular-letter which he did issue.
